

Rewision User Study – International Students (IIT Bombay)

Thank you for your interest in participating in our user study!

We're a team of students from IIT Bombay developing Rewision – an educational platform that transforms passive learning into active learning.

We're conducting a short user study to understand how students from other countries engage with online educational content. Your responses will help us design a better learning experience for students around the world.

The study will take approximately 20–30 minutes, and your participation will remain confidential.
